Infertility Journeys: Finding Your Happy Ending tells the family-building journeys of eighteen couples who struggle with infertility and how they find their happy endings. Written with honesty, humor, and compassion, Infertility Journeys weaves the stories of women and men together with a wealth of information about fertility treatments, and the emotional struggles couples experience. The book offers hope, encouragement, and inspiration, helping women and men to process unmet expectations and to navigate their family-building options. Overflowing with ideas and suggestions, Infertility Journeys: Finding Your Happy Ending offers:

- Stories of eighteen couples who have experienced various forms of infertility and outcomes
- Potential family-building options such as fertility treatments, third-party options such as egg donors or surrogates, adoption, or childfree living
- Sixteen essential questions to ask a fertility specialist
- Highlights specific to a man's experience
- Positive guidance through the grieving process
- Explanations of holistic fertility treatments
- Suggestions to family and friends of couples struggling with infertility

This book is for anyone who has been affected by infertility, including family and friends of infertile couples.
