This story is about a young girl that lives in a village of some of the most amazing people they are called Changers. Her name is Tigereye and she is one of five siblings. She was born to the most wonderful family. Her mother and father were the king and queen of this village. Her people were called changers because of their ability to change into animals. These were some of the most of kind people they all had different kinds of ability's and shared magical bond with dragons. The dragons picked their own live long partner that they would share their lives with and protect. Tigereye was very different from all of her other siblings. She had strange eyes and could hear and smell better than any of them. She loves to look at the moon. Her younger siblings looked up to her. She is chosen by the most unusually dragon. This dragon hadn't seen been in the country since the age of the elder dragons. Which are through to have been long dead out. The queen is very happy to have all of her children but she prizes Tigereye the most of them all. When the queen has a bad dream about some evil that was going to be coming for them. The king and queen puts their children thought some hard training. Tigereye puts all her efforts into her training. A long the way she become even closer to her younger sisters and meet's some new friends that she would trust her life with. After their dragons had gone into a two year slumber their world was turned upside down by an attack on their village in the middle of the night by an evil man and his troops. Tigereye finds herself fighting to save other children from her village and try's to find the rest of her family. She saves her younger siblings and many other children with the help of her friends. Her friends had gotten the serving children to safety while Tigereye looks through the village for the rest of her family. But all she finds is her father and brother had been killed and her mother dies in her arms. Tigereye had to leave her fallen family and home behind. She catches up with the serving children then had to explain to them that they had lost their families and their homes. Tigereye has no time to grieve for her own family she had to keep her mind on the others that looked up to her. She works out a plan to keep them all safe from the evil men that are looking for them throughout the country. She finds herself stuck in a war that she need to find a way out of. She keeps them all safe for a few years and in the mean time they all learn how to fight and protect themselves better. Some of them even learned that they could do things that they thought they could never do. A long the way Tigereye finds out that she has many other kind of ability's that hadn't been seen in a long time. Tigereye finds out that some of the evil men were starting to close in on them and decides that it was time for them to fight back and try to get to the dragons and wake them up. The dragons had been asleep and didn't even know that their home had been lost to the evil enemy. Tigereye decided it was time to change that. So she gathers up five friends and starts their journey back to her home. When she runs into trouble and finds herself separated from her friends an on her own. She has to fight for her own live many times. When she finally gets back with her friends she has made some new friends that have changed side to help her and the other changers. She finds out that it was going to be much harder then what they thought to get back into their home and wake the dragons. But in their travels Tigereye has been shown something from the moon goddess. The moon goddess takes her to a place that has been hind since the time of the elder dragons. She finds an elder dragon stuck in a deep slumber and wake her up. A long the way Tigereye finds something out about herself that she didn't know and would have never even guessed something that the moon goddess had picked her for.
