An Inspiring Amish Love Story Guaranteed To Make You Smile

After Lydia's Dat is seriously hurt in a farming accident, the entire Byler family is thrust into a series of hardships and obstacles that challenge their faith and threaten their Amish way of life. The simple and quiet life they once knew is suddenly filled with a raging storm of turmoil and uncertainty.

When their neighbor's orphaned nephew, Jake, volunteers to help out the family until Dat recovers from his injuries, Lydia is suddenly confronted with the first flutters of young love springing up inside her heart. Jake is strong, confident and surprisingly gentle as he talks intimately with Lydia about his dreams and plans for the future. As their relationship grows closer, however, they find that love doesn't come without challenges of its own.

Jake's deeply personal struggles with his faith because of the death of his parents affects Lydia's faith as well, causing her to wrestle with her own doubts and her identity of who she is as a woman. As she turns to God for answers, she wonders if she will have to choose between her faith and her love for Jake.

Follow this sweet, romantic journey of a young Amish couple discovering deeper truths about themselves and their faith as they explore the innocent beginnings of young love.

One Amish Summer celebrates the innocence and purity of a young couple falling in love and discovering the truth of who they are and what is truly important in life.
