R.E.M. Joe Hernandez

Tomas, a young Hispanic man from South Texas, believing that the educational software company EdTech was somehow responsible for the insanity and death of an old friend, postpones his wedding plans and leaves his fiancée to go work for the company in Austin. Soon after beginning his new job, Tomas begins to dream romantically of a woman he just met. Driven by the death of his friend, Tomas must ignore his new emotions, and a stranger's warning of brain washing, and focus on his personal investigation. With the help of a computer expert he begins to see the depth of the company's illegal activities - not only in brainwashing, but murder. Time is running out for Tomas as he is implicated in a murder, and the company is set to influence the mass market with its new game division.
