If you've got money problems, housing difficulties, family struggles, and find yourself in emotional tumults, you may have noticed that you are not alone. Everyone is touched by this new economic climate; no one is left out, no matter how they appear to be surviving.

What to do about it? How to help yourself and others? How to approach today and tomorrow by giving yourself the best opportunity of doing well is revealed here -- it's a new way of living and new skills need to be learned and embraced.

The tools and techniques offered here will give you and yours ways to cope and ways to improve your situation, whether financial or emotional. It covers every aspect of life. This survival guide offers suggestions on how to make the most of what you have and how to improve your circumstances in the future. It offers a new way of living and is a road map for creating a better world -- one person at a time, starting with you! Your life and your world will be better in the process.
