The Republican Revolution: The Wicked Seed: Who REALLY Killed Nicole Brown Simpson? William L. Wallace

The truths written in this book are exposed as the separatists' ideology continue to plague our nation. If we are ever to find peace and live peaceably amongst one another, we must first uncover the truth about American race relations. Since the landing of the first explorer's ships in the New World to the initiation of slavery in the America, the white supremacy, spirit of greed has consumed this nation. Beginning with the Native Americans who were known as savages and driven from their homes to the African-Americans who were chained and shackled like animals, and stolen from their homeland. Both groups of people were demonized and demoralized by this spirit that has tried for centuries to divide and conquer. Because race relations are such a delicate subject in our country, it is almost taboo to speak of these terms. Many American citizens and politicians want to close their eyes and wish the conversation away, but one must face the demons in order to denounce the demons. As long as there is darkness, evil is in control, and there remain the likes of police brutality and senseless murders. Many people do not want to face the truth about race relations, but the truth is the only mechanism whereby our country can truly be free. The hour has come and now is that The Light of the world has spoken this revelation that all men might be free. One is free from the ills of the past and the other free from condemnation of the ancestors. Plantation Politics (the spirit of Massa and the spirit of the House Negro) being prevalent in the culture of American government has divided the American people by race. The God of Heaven is uniting us by our faith! He is calling the global church forth according to Ephesians 4:5 "One Lord, one faith, one baptism."
