Is this booklet the result of a weird mind? Could be. Although some psychologists will answer, “Most definitely!”. However, only pictures are printed of scenes we all watch. Some we hate, some we love (or at least like). The only difference is that I take pictures of them. Is that weird? And sometimes these pictures trigger my imagination: a gorilla in the subway of Paris, a Pippa-bride, someone with African roots in the Mandela garden, plenty of blah blah blah on the Paris walls, some redecorated vans, people all pointing in the same direction, some giants filling the streets of Paris, an eye for an eye, blood sausage, books which get liberated, fashion in daily life, etc., etc., ... . And be honest, in which book on Paris will you read the link between a bastard royal and Serge Gainsbourg, between Napoleon and a ruler 2,000 years ago, how to make kouignettes (but not how to pronounce them), the sex life of giants, how far humor should not go, how difficult it is to enter the right shop, which food is to die for (not my words), and again ‘etc., etc., ...’. Enjoy the reading. Dre Treeke
