"Denali, the great one, soaring under the midnight sun. And then the extremes. In the winter time it's the frozen road that is competing with the view of ice fogged frigid beauty, the cold though, doesn't it split the Cheechakos from the Sourdoughs?"

WTF? Did she really just say that?

You betcha! From the publisher who brought you the national best selling George W. Bush Out of Office Countdown calendar, comes a comedic celebration of the best bloopers, blunders, strange ramblings, unintentional poetics, and goofy logic of America's most-watched rogue politician, Sarah Palin. Featuring the classic blunders from the campaign trail, the worst of the press interviews, offhand embarrassments, and the latest and greatest mistakes committed as this maverick's star continues to shine, from Unalakleet to Juneau and beyond.

"I think on a national level your Department of Law there in the White House would look at some of the things that we've been charged with and automatically throw them out."
