This book entitled The Rings of truth : Dying words is the first book of the series The rings of truth . It is merely about Jessica Kinsey a police officer finding the truth about a killer named rafael

Jessica Kinsey is a police officer that has found herself being demoted from detective to that of patrol. In the course of her day, she witnesses and murder and tries to take down the assailant. His escape is one part of the story. What she finds will lead her down some dark alleys with a killer named Rafael. There is heat between them, but their main concern is the protection of the innocent. To that end they will have to work together against an enemy that is not exactly a stranger to Rafael. He has no visible emotion, but maybe the heat between them will melt his icy veins.

Ring of Truth Part 1

Dying words

Jessica Kinsey is a police officer that has been demoted because of a mistake on the job. She was a high profile homicide detective, but now she's back in uniform doing what she did 10 years ago. It's all pretty much mundane, until she meets a man that has been stabbed in broad daylight. She chases off the attacker and then hears his dying declaration that makes no sense. She spies a young man at the scene of the crime looking suspicious. Before she can question him, he disappears like that of a ghost. He is a dark and mysterious man named Rafael Sanchez. She finds a ring with strange language inscribed on the back of it. She takes it into her custody and before she can make it to the station, she is ambushed on the road. Rafael comes to her rescue and they soon find themselves on the trail of the mystery of why that man died in the first place.
