The Pigeon, an action filled adventure story of courage and survival of the fittest. To be or not to be, a pigeon? Judy, a veterinarian and Bobby, an undercover detective will be racing their beloved pigeons in a grueling and hazardous race; defying challenging obstacles: storms, planes, hunters, predatory falcons, violent competitors and pirates. While preparing for the race they will be staying with David. His ancestor created a transporter; the predecessor to those used in Star Trek for transporting people. Unfortunately, while attempting to try it on himself, a fly found its way into the transporter and during the transfer of atoms Andre's head was transferred to the fly and vice versa, though he kept his mind. As a result he died horrifically and his story was later made into a film called, The Fly. David, believing one's man's failure is another man's success, he tries to convince Judy and Bobby to enter his transporter pods, so that they can temporarily become pigeons, with their heads, and compete with the other pigeons in the race; thereby documenting the race and its obstacles for the benefit of the safety of all pigeons in future races. An opportunity almost too hard to resist. Joseph Verola has also written several screen plays along with: You're A Dog, Jack, Ten Steps to Becoming a Movie Star, The American Idol Book, None That I Know Of, The Brian "Glaze" Story - Beyond Lucky and a series of self improvement CDs under the title of Free High Memory Recall.
