TONY ROBBINS VS NAPOLEON HILL: The Friendly Comparison (VS HEROES) VS HEROES

One Little Book Two Big Heroes

Tony Robbins and Napoleon Hill are two of the greatest success coaches of all time, yet nobody has ever put them side by side?

These two men have been the greatest influence to billions of lives across the world!

This book is a friendly comparison between Tony Robbins “the why guy” and the late and great Napoleon Hill, the guy who brought what we now call the “Law of Attraction” to the masses.

This book is a short read comparing and contrasting our two favorite successful psychology guys!

In this book you will learn exactly who these men are, if you don't already know them, we will break down success and the law of attraction, success psychology, success philosophy, and how we view failure.

We will see how these men were raised, what their childhoods were like, their education or lack of it. Isn't it worth knowing that Tony Robbins has the “Tony Robbins Foundation” and Napoleon Hill has the “Napoleon Hill Foundation?”

If Napoleon Hill was alive today what would these two men agree on? Surprisingly... a lot. Tony and Napoleon may be from completely different generations, however, both men were strong advocates of the power of burning passion, belief system, emotions, and the power of action which is exactly why this book needed to be written!

Although Napoleon Hill and Tony Robbins were alike in so many ways, these two men did have some differences, for example; both men tread lightly around the subject of religion, but they have their own different ways of doing so! One very interesting thing, is that they have a huge difference in teaching/speech style. Tony actually uses Neuro-Linguistic Programming, and even studied some hypnotism, which just to be clear I am not saying Tony hypnotizes people, however he does use it change one's psychology quicker than anyone has ever seen! Napoleon Hill, on the other hand, is very direct and old fashioned with his teaching/speeches directly teaching his success philosophy based off of what he has gathered from his years of studying successful people!

What do you think motivated these men at a young age to become who they are now known as? The simple answer is that they were not limited to their circumstances, which believe me, weren't too great of circumstances, in general! These men did not think in terms of what they didn't have, they thought in terms of what experiences were teaching them. Everything was an opportunity for them to grow, create or even both, no matter how hard the situation, no matter how brash the circumstances, they made something of it.

These two men will always be remembered for hundreds of years, because while we, humans, don't last forever our thoughts, philosophies, and knowledge will always remain and have the power to change the world 1000 years from now. These men have truly changed the world and this book is my way of honoring the two most influential people in my life that I have never met!
