West Wind Linda Winstead Jones

Annabelle St. Clair has the voice of an angel and the devil at her heels. Running from a murder she did not commit, the world-renowned opera singer is being reduced to singing in saloons until she finds a handsome gunslinger willing to take her to safety in San Francisco. A restless bounty hunter, Shelley was more at home on the range than in Annabelle's polite society. Yet on the rugged trail, he could not resist sharing with her a passion as vast and limitless as the Western sky. But, despite the ecstasy, Annabelle trusts no one, especially not a man with dangerous secrets—secrets that threaten to ruin their lives and destroy their love.
