[(Nosce Te Ipsum/Know Thyself : An Exhibition by Lorraine Clarke at the Art and Design Gallery, University of Hertfordshire)] [By (author) Lorraine Clarke] published on (September, 2007) Lorraine Clarke

The companion to Lorraine Clarke's first major UK exhibition since returning from Italy in 2000, this book explores the mysterious link between magic, medicine, and religion. Providing a full-color record of the show, it also includes a statement from the artist and an essay by medical historian Dr. Ruth Richardson. Clarke's work is an excavation of the human being, exploring the history of our bodily awareness and addressing contemporary issues.

Ann David:

As a scholar exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's spirit or real their interest. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring and also can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this [(Nosce Te Ipsum/Know Thyself : An Exhibition by Lorraine Clarke at the Art and Design Gallery, University of Hertfordshire)] [By (author) Lorraine Clarke] published on (September, 2007) can make you truly feel more interested to read.
