Raven's Redemption (Windchase Family Trilogy) (Volume 2) Catherine Boyd

Book two of three in the Windchase Family Saga series. At 29, Raven Windchase thinks she has God just where she wants him: at arm's length, where she has kept Him since He allowed her parents to perish in a flashflood when she and her twin brother Aspen were ten years old. Now, an unforeseen inheritance from the maternal grandparents the twins never met allows "Pen" and Raven to open their dream: Chase the Wind Stables, where Raven's exceptional affinity for horses ensures a regular stream of wealthy horse owners to their Bozeman, Montana business. With the entrance of rich and handsome bachelor Tom Martin, Raven's life is loping smoothly along the path she has chosen, newly alcohol and drug free and well on the way to the destination of marriage, perfect children, and loving domination of the men who worship her, Pen and Tom. But that is before an errant colt's hoof puts Pen into a coma and forces stable hand Gus Whitaker to reveal horse-handling talents no one knew he had and take over all the work of Chase the Wind Stables. And when a horrific car crash leaves Raven with a condition that ends her chance at a perfect marriage and motherhood, she is forced to face a question she has never had to confront before: How much do you have to lose before you can hear what God has been telling you for years?
