Lori Erickson had thought that she had found the love of her life in Timothy.

Over the years, their relationship became more of conjugal visits on their birthdays and special occasions. She found herself enamored with a young man that took her breath away.

She found out that she was pregnant and when she went looking for this man, he had all, but disappeared.

She decided to try to pawn the child on Timothy. She had seduced him in hopes of keeping the secret, but secrets have a way of finding their way out into the light of day.

His anger gets the best of him and this makes Lori feel that she has only one choice.

Running is not her idea of fun, but she finds Ian a helpful stranger that has secrets of his own. Can she find the father of her child and what of her feelings for Ian?

WARNING: This eBook contains mature themes and language. Intended for 18+ readers only.
