In today's world, the sad reality is that cancer is becoming more and more common. But what most people don't realize is how much food and overall nutrition contribute to a person's health and well-being.

In Bye, Bye Cancer!, author Dr. Rhonda N. Cambridge-Phillip offers a simple, easy-to-follow guide regarding the powerful role that nutritional supplements can play in the prevention and healing of cancer.

Chapters such as "Cancer 101," "Just Eating Right' May Not Be Enough," and "Not All Supplements Are Created Equal" explore not only the basic causes and remedies of cancer but also how communities can use vitamins, minerals, antioxidants, and other nutrients as an essential part of a total wellness program alongside other healthy lifestyle habits.

Designed for someone who is working directly with a knowledgeable health care professional, this vital resource provides insightful tips on how to choose the right supplements to help prohibit disease as well as improve the effectiveness of traditional cancer treatments.

Dr. Cambridge-Phillip is passionate about inspiring others to take charge of their health, and this compelling book will help you do exactly that.
