After being back in Bakersfield, Caroline is quickly whisked off to Colima, Mexico to be married to Juan Carlos. He didn't waste any time with their nuptials because he wants to have full control of her. Sergio and Ricardo Sanchez, the grandfather and father of Hector, come to visit Javier and Juan Carlos because they had reason to believe that they knew what happened to Hector. Juan Carlos, being smug and arrogant, admits to personally killing Hector himself. Ricardo becomes so outraged that he declares war on the Munzo family, with his first plan of action being to kill one of Juan Carlos's children to avenge Hector. Now back in St. Louis and confused about her husband's whereabouts, Caroline resumes her identity as Kayla and decides to pick up where she left off until Juan Carlos contacts her. Even though Juan Carlos had been up under a lot of stress, he and Caroline have been working on their relationship. Caroline has finally realized how much she actually loves her husband. Will their love sustain in St. Louis?
