After 2008 Real Estate developers facing the lack of bank loans for construction started to seek alternative ways of financing. Some of us pursued foreign investors to bring their capital in accordance to the USCIS EB5 program. Such entrepreneurs had shown to have a long term vision, to be surrounded by well qualified consultant in many fields like immigration attorneys, corporate attorneys, SEC compliance officers, economists, accountants, marketing people, etc. They also had extraordinary patience to deal with the Federal Agencies' pace of processing that is not synchronized with the pace needed by the development itself. This Book describes the process. Learn more about the author and his corporation at www.rivierapmo.com
