How long has it been since you believed in magic?

Caleb Reed is scared of everything. Terrorists. Bird flu. Even the gas stove. But what frightens him more than anything is the abandoned, ghost of a mansion across the street. With its boarded up eyes and eerie overgrown gardens, the hundred year old beast has been mocking the agoraphobic teen for years, Now, things are getting worse. The paint peeled mansion has been changing, and mysterious notes from a dead poet have begun to arrive on his doorstep. His parents think he's losing his mind, but Caleb knows they're wrong. Something's going on over there, something strange, something terrifying ...something beautiful. Read the EPIC Award nominated novel that critics are saying is "an amazing read!", "powerful" and "unlike anything I've read." I'm Nobody: The Lost Pages is a triumphant tale of hope over fear, and one that kids and grown-ups of all ages will love. *A London Book Festival Honorable Mention Winner.
