Twenty-year-old student at Kaplan University plans to go to Atlanta and ... Jim turned to the clerk and re-evaluated the situation. The woman behind the counter was that sort of woman Mexican refer to as "unintentional" - a catchphrase, for her height and beauty. She was nearly as tall as he was, with that black hair encircled by a braided headband that ran down the middle and falling past her shoulder, and when she looked at him, her eyes were undeniably beautiful. She was much younger than the squat Mexican woman who had seen in the stores and entered the room in the corridor of his hotel in Mazatlan. Dark brown almond eyes in her face met him in mind of a cat, with high cheekbones below and a slight flattening of the nose with a high bridge between them. She wore a dress that looked like gold bustier over a braided red sleeveless blouse, and a skirt of unusual style; but to minimize height in the front the how the gloriouse leg, it ruffled almost to ankle length at the back in the open-ended high heels and the work. A pair of large emerald green translucent gold links flowed from the shoulder of her blouse, caught by two narrow bands at her wrists and ornamented by two wide gold bracelets on her upper arm. A heavy gold necklace draped onto the left breast by two firm breasts above the bustier. She was altogether that elegant of lines.
