The End Justifies the Means T.H. Moore

Sometimes life is only as fair as you make it. And sometimes The End Justifies the Means . . . Blending experience with imagination helped formulate the basis of, and inspired the author, T.H. Moore, to write The End Justifies the Means. The novel is uniquely creative fiction, but an equally honest representation of his life and challenges. The story is staged within the inner-sanctum of Camden, New Jersey where the undercurrents of treachery, bribery, and money laundering, fuel a family's revenge against the city's political elite.
