When you think of passive income, most people think of investing, real estate investing, book royalties or royalties. However, it's all good, but not necessarily a handful of the most profitable passive income streams that are available. This book is intended to get your creative juices flowing, give you ideas, tools and resources that you can use to create your passive income up to the point where you're financially free.

Between is the book outline:

Chapter 1 deals with the fundamentals, why it's important to be in the right business and financial freedom and financial freedom and others.

Chapter 2 talks about the importance of mindset paradigm shift, that it is a need to change your mind, attitude and behavior in line with the new reality of our times, unlike the days of old.

Chapter 3 critically examines the most common financial dream, basic living, financial education and basic necessities account for their points; all of which are managing your financial resources within your reach.

Chapter 4 practically describes the concept of arbitrage by looking at a typical example of a fresh college graduate, who is drawing a take-home salary of $3,000 a month. She has no debt, but with her rent and work as an IT Engineer in a suburb area. In her line of work, it's likely that she'll have to work up to 15 hours each work day. The big question here is – how would she be able to start building a stream of passive income with the income that she's taking home today?

Read the book to get the answers.

The next section on the three methods for the GAME-CHANGERS, they are well discussed with illustrative and realistic examples to drive home the point for the reader.

Chapter 5 wraps up the whole point of discussing how to create it, now that you've gone through the entire book in detail.

The book concludes with vital factors that can be used to create and sustain a passive income stream and these include the need of a strong network of friends, knowledge of leveraging and a diligent character.

So, does it still look unbelievable when I say that you can buy a house with little or no money?

The answers are all there in the book.
