We Are Family: A Heartwarming Story of a Successful Adoption Reunion Sarah Elaine Eaton

A true story of a successful adoption search and reunion with one Canadian family. Heartwarming and inspirational, this story shares details of how the author, Sarah Elaine Eaton, found her birth brother using Internet adoption search registries. She shares how the match was confirmed through government records and how a series of reunions brought the family together. In the final pages, she shares how the family lost their mother to cancer in the same year as the reunion. She died having fulfilled her last wish, which was to know that the son she had given up for adoption decades earlier was happy and healthy.
