Suffer II E.E. Borton

A secret lies underneath the dark, still waters of the bayou in southern Louisiana. The sleepy town of Boudreaux wants to keep it there. Kate has other plans.

After the team accepts a plea for help from a desperate mother who refuses to give up searching for her missing daughter, they leave the protection of their Miami sanctuary and head deep into unfamiliar territory. As soon as they arrive in the town that time forgot, they realize there are more things in the swamps trying to kill them than help them.

To hunt down a predator, you have to think like one. To make their punishment fit the crime, you have to become one.
