In this saga of world transforming love, a boy named Eli catches God's dream and makes it his own, following it with the help of his grandfather. Dreams and visions come to both of them, and they are presented with a mission—and a plan of action—to change the world. Their hope is the return to God's original dream for his children. By practicing a form of meditation that they call the "figure eight," Eli and others begin a spiritual and mystical chain reaction that catches humanity on fire with God's love—and that love transforms the world. We are shown that Love's Master Plan includes everyone—no exceptions—and that humanity can regain its Original Innocence. "And a little child shall lead them." – Suitable to be read to or by either juveniles or adults, this is a story for children of all ages, for the truly Originally Innocent Child in each of us. If you are looking for a story that will introduce your juvenile to teen-aged child to the empowering potential of a mystical or contemplative path, then this is THE book and the vision for you to share!
