Special Forces Training Michael J. De Grave

The goal of this Bible study for men, Special Forces Training, is to train and equip men to be leaders in the church. Special Forces Training is designed for a group Bible study. Each teaching within this men's Bible study will encourage participation and teamwork. This Bible study is like boot camp for Christian men.

Special Forces Training is a group Bible study that enables men to be equipped with spiritual weapons of warfare. These Bible studies help define a Christian man's life principles and put them into action to protect the church and family. This Bible study requires men to bring their Bible, learn to look up Bible passages, and take responsibility to learn how to use spiritual armor.
