Meetings: A Religious Autobiography Chuck Fager

This book describes Chuck Fager's transition from a conservative Catholic, pro-military youth to an active peace witness and a lengthy period of "spiritual formation" among progressive Quakers. All this happened in a time of war, sharp social upheaval and personal turmoil. The account culminates in a special religious coming of age in the mid-1970s, which in turn marked the opening of another period of intertwined personal and broader history, in a continuing time of tumult and change. The result is both a compelling story of our time, and the narrative of a unique personal quest for meaning, transcendence, and a useful life.
