Welcome to your acting career!

ACTING: How To Build A Brilliant Career is a book about skills, not talent. It exists because there are countless books from casting directors and agents out there giving good advice but none from the actor's perspective.

This is a book written by an actor, for actors.

ACTING: How To Build A Brilliant Career exists because there is a need for actors to have access to information on how to build a lasting career as a performing artist without paying someone else hundreds of dollars for the privilege.

This book will help you to overcome all the obstacles that will block your path to success with common sense and a day-to-day, year-to-year strategy.

All you need is a firm belief in yourself and your abilities!
