Baffling Your Quilts: Simple Quilt As You Go Construction Carol McLeod

This pattern booklet includes six projects: two traditional row by row quilts, a medallion table topper, a diagonal quilt, and two classic pieced block quilts). You'll use "baffling" -- a super easy quilt-as-you-go method, which is great for baby quilts, cottage quilts, and everyday quilts. Not only do you use strips of fabric or rows of blocks for the front, but you also use strips of batting and backing fabric. No need to manhandle large pieces of batting or backing through that small opening in your sewing machine. Work on just two rows at a time. When you are done with them...you are done. And the resulting quilts are reversible.
