Yuma, Arizona, an Old Wild-West town, is a new setting for murder and mayhem in this present-day mystery/thriller. When a young Apache woman, Kim Altaha, and her social-worker friend, Allie Davis try to solve the murder of a mutual friend, they are threatened by dangers both human and natural. The story is complicated by a mentally ill woman on a mission and a clinically sane but morally deranged killer who meet in a violent encounter. Discovery of a severed head deepens the horror. The action rushes from Yuma to nearby Kofa National Wildlife Refuge, to Yuma Proving ground, where top-secret, drone-mounted laser weapons are tested, then makes a mad dash for the Mexico border. Between the characters and among the lines and pages, heroic and cowardly acts take place, friendships are deepened and a girl becomes a woman in love.
