Molly begins dance classes at her brand new studio with boundless zeal. Unfortunately, someone paid for her loans—someone mysterious. Burning with this knowledge, she hopes continually it wasn't Drew. After all: she doesn't need his charity. Her pride won't let her fall for it.

But she can't get him out of her mind. After the hot, steaming lovemaking in the Jacuzzi in Iowa, she longs to be with him, to be a couple. But it seems impossible. He's a player, after all.

But every time he calls, she comes. Is it really all right that he treats her like a charity case though? Can the passion she feels for him truly last, or will he dump her for someone else?
